Sales Distribution Agreements for Autostereoscopic 3D Digital Video Walls

The Directors of Integrated Media technology Limited (ASX:ITL; NASDAQ:IMTE) (“IMT” or the “Company”) are pleased to announce that the Company’s wholly owned subsidiary, Marvel Digital Limited, has entered into two sale distribution agreements with two independent customers. The agreements relate to the sales of autostereoscopic 3D digital video walls and standalone digital signages; and the total contract value is equivalent to approximately AUD 14,800,000 (RMB76,000,000).

The customers and parties to the respective agreements are China based companies operating primarily in the Greater China region. One of the customers will place the autostereoscopic 3D digital video walls at major cinema chains and commercial complex for advertising and promotion purposes. The autostereoscopic 3D digital video wall is our latest flagship product. The video walls are expected to be delivered progressively throughout the year and be completed in early 2019. The other customer will deploy the digital signages for displaying advertisement and disseminating public information & organization news in educational institutes, office buildings and government owned premises.

The Company is pleased to have secured these sale distribution agreements, the completion of which is considered to be a key earnings and business growth driver of the Company. The Directors remain confident about the potential of securing additional contracts for the sale of 3D products and services in the near future.

On behalf of the Board,
Yours sincerely,

/s/ Dr. Herbert Ying Chiu Lee
